

J. M. Donahue, conductor Western av. car, probably fatally slashed by two men who escaped.

Miss Sara M. Hopkins, clubwoman, 3150 Michigan av., nominated by suffragists for alderman of Second Ward.

Students to censure own dances. Northwestern University tangoists to eliminate objectionable features.

American Medical Ass'n has protested against crowded cars. Say "they are dangerous to work-weakened women and children, and cost cannot be estimated in dollars and cents."

F. W. Parsons, salesman Wabash Feature Film Co., arrested. Said to have obtained money under false pretenses. Edwin Giltzow, 19, 333 Schiller st., complainant.

BITS OF NEWS

Battle Creek, Mich.—In effort to break up drug habit among coterie of young men in city, police arrested Dr. T. H. Oliver, charged with supplying cocaine and heroin.

Belfast. — Customs authorities seized and confiscated several large consignments of rifles, bayonets and ammunition in accordance with royal proclamation against importation of arms into Ireland.

Washington.—Expected Pres. Wilson will receive committee of suffragets Monday.

FIVE OF THE RAIL-RIDING

WOMEN ARE CONVICTED

Waukegan, Ill., Dec. 6.—Five of the six women accused of participating in the Volo rail-riding episode, when Mrs. Minnie Richardson, the wife of a cripple, was taken through the town and finally dumped into a mudhole with the threat that if she did not get out and stay away she would be given worse treatment, were convicted and will be sentenced Monday. The innocence of the sixth woman, Mrs. Kate Wagner, was established.

Four of the women convicted are grandmothers. The maximum sentence is $200 fine or six months' imprisonment.

HOYNE HAS THREE NORTHUP MEN ARE ARRESTED

State's Att'y Maclay Hoyne sprang a coup today when he appeared before Municipal Judge Wade and swore out a warrant for Paul Rothenberg, investigator for Special State's Att'y John E. Northup, and two other men.

Rothenberg is accused of conspiracy to suborn perjury in the vote fraud cases now being pushed by Northup.

Mr. Hoyne announced that he had two other investigators in custody and they had confessed to the plot.

The case is due to come up in Judge Wade's court late today.

SHE HAD HIM, ALL RIGHT

"I'm sorry to tell you, m'm, that I'll be leaving you next week. I'm going to get married."

"Is that so, Anna? Who is the lucky man?"

"He's a policeman."

"And what is his name?"

"I don't know yet, but I've got his number."